MARTIN DEPUTY, alias Marshall Dupes, arrested as the leader of a gang that kidnapped a woman in Kansas City, tells detectives: "Boys, you're well wasting time. I did it. I'm going to get the moon, and I'm not afraid."

Missouri, in which the kidnappers were done, seeks to discourage the crime, by punishing it with death.

Capital punishment is abundant, but if the five men that combined to kidnap the Missouri woman were to be hanged, it would cost $15,000 from her, were all strung up.

It is established that the Missouri woman was kidnapped in Kansas City, and that she was taken to a house in St. Louis, where she was held for ransom.

GREAT BRITAIN TO TAKE HAND IN GIRL'S DEATH

Acting Consul to Interview
Morrow Household
Over Suicide

ENGLAND, June 15.—Great Britain's acting consul general in New York is expected to arrive here soon to interview members of Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow's household concerning the death of Violet Sharpe, Morrow's servant, who committed suicide when police failed to question her about her movements the night Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr., was kidnapped.

The British foreign office has asked the acting consul general, Edward Sharpe, to interview the Morrow household, to submit a report on the death. The theory has been expressed that repeated sessions with the police may have unnerved her to that, although innocent, she took her life. The police have said she was treated kindly.

Mr. Shepherd planned to attend the young woman's burial here today.

No Alarm Felt When Irish Payments Delayed

GREAT BRITAIN UNWORRIED ON ANNUITY PACT

Easy Feller, Easy

"Easy, now... easy-y-y-y" It was Zoubo's first attempt to walk after the plaster cast had been removed from a broken leg, and the 300-pound elephant was being assisted by his keepers at the Atlantic City, N.J., steel pier.

The Free State government stands its determination to withhold payment of the Irish Free State annuities, apparently, along with its intention to abolish the parliamentary oath of allegiance, policies which led to the recent differences between the Free State and Great Britain.

The payment due this month amounts to £1,500,000, half of the yearly payment of annuities which is due from farmers of the Free State, through the government, to holders of Irish land stock, some of whom reside in the Free State itself. The practice has generally been for the Free State to remit the payment in the second half of June and the second half of December.

Club Owner Wins Appeal Against Gaming

Mussolini, "Big Dog" Worth $50,000, Dead To Bomber

OTTAWA, June 15.—The appeal of George Hamilton, of Vancouver, B.C., was today allowed by the Supreme Court of Canada, and his conviction set aside. Hamilton, a steward of the Brunswick Sports Club of Vancouver, was convicted of helping a common gaming house, but on appeal to the Court of Appeal of British Columbia, his conviction was set aside.

He admitted the fact on which his conviction was based, but denied that they brought the club within the category described in the statute. The letter described the premises as "a gaming house," but the club members did not "remit" the club within the meaning of the act for the purpose of playing.

The great eighteenth century naturalist, Linnaeus, slipped up in classifying the vole as a "half-blind" bear, because he examined only one specimen which had an injured eye.

Edmonton Lions To Attend Meet

Headed by H. B. Burden, president of the Edmonton Lions club, who will be accompanied by Mrs. Burden, a party of 25 Lions from this city will leave Thursday night or early Friday for Calgary to attend the annual district convention in the Palliser hotel of Lions from Alberta and Manitoba. It is said that a total of 200 delegates is expected.

International President Hyer of Chicago is expected to be present and attend and address, while the two day convention will include both business and entertainment.

FRANCE-CANADA TREATY IN SIGHT

OTTAWA, June 15.—Canada and France were still continuing negotiations today for the extension of the trade pact between the two countries until December 31. With prospects favoring the extension, an official announcement is expected late today but more probably tomorrow.

The official understanding here is that on the notice given the treaty will not expire until midnight tomorrow and not "midnight tonight." Certain changes in the present provisions of the pact is expected to be contained in the announcement of extension.

Jury Disagrees On Fate Of Police Chief Murderer

VERNON, B.C., June 14.—The trial of David Murdoch, former chief constable of Kelowna, charged with the murder of Jean Nolan last January, remained undecided today after a jury in assize court failed to agree last night after six hours deliberation. The jury was discharged, and the trial was today transferred to the fall assizes.

Cellar Digger Grows Sad

WORK AT $850; HEART ACHE $10,000

As Love's Labor Is Lost

CLEVELAND, O., June 15.—Love's labor lost—the grimy job of digging a cellar—was valued at $850 today by American Grampa, but he placed the damage to his heart at $10,000. Day after day as he labored and bumped his head, Grampa told a jury of six women, he was buoyed up by one thought; that he could marry his landlady when the job was finished.

But the landlady, Mrs. Beatrice Burke Widrik, put him off year after year, he testified in his suit for alienation of affections, and found Mrs. Widrik, however, testified that Grampa repaired the house in lieu of rent after he had lost his job. In a cross-petition she demanded that Grampa pay his back rent.

TWO TIMBER WOLVES PROVE GREAT MENACE

Section Foreman on Coal Branch Says Animals Bold as Brass

The timber wolves up the Coal branch, south-west of Edmonton, are bold instead of wild. Unless, that is, with the cunning of their kind, they're getting ready to pull a Red Riding Hood on some innocent child they lead out into the bush.

Two timber wolves, a large, dark gray brute, have taken to hanging around the home of Sam Grekul, section foreman at Mile 18, near Leyland, it was said by Carl A. Johnson, who was out-fitting at Uncle Ben's Exchange on Wednesday. To be quite frank, he was getting some ammunition to shoot the wolves with.

Johnson is the section foreman's father-in-law, and he says that the wolves have been hanging around the house all winter. At intervals they make a raid on the Grekul garage pile.

BOLD AS BRASS

"Just as bold as brass, as big as hulk, and as cunning as snakes, got down on 'em," said Johnson. "One time when I was visiting there, I saw one of the wolves pounce on a horse and start to drink it away. It was a dead easy shot—right and I can't hit a buck with my rifle. I fired, but I missed and the wolves leaped into their jack-pots while I was still wondering what was all about. When I looked at my sights, I saw that some of the pack were in the 400 yards range, and the wolf I shot was about 40 yards away."

This is the only time the wolves have been shot at, Johnson explained, now they only come when the men are away.

"But I'll get 'em just," he swore.

Heavy Sentences Given Crews Of Colliding Trains

DUNFERMELT, N.S., June 15.—The death sentence was imposed today upon the railroad station master at Zevaly and his assistant, who were convicted of responsibility for a wreck near the station in which a number of passengers were killed.

It was a head-on collision between two trains and the station master was charged with having mixed the signals while he was intoxicated. Thirteen other railroad employees, including the crews of both trains, were sentenced to prison terms of one to ten years. One man was acquitted.

FAVOR SIX-HOUR DAY

REGINA, Sask., June 15.—Already considered with favor by many railroads and industrialists in the United States, the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, during the second day of their convention here, went on record as being highly in accord with the principle of the six-hour day instead of the eight-hour schedule at present in force.

FISHING OPENS ON ATHABASKA RIVER JUNE 16

Waters in Province in This Area

The fishing season on the Athabasca river and its tributaries opens Thursday, June 16, and lasts until October 31. This is positively the best fishing territory in Alberta, according to experts, and disciples of Isaac Walton will be able to get into action with both cod and imagination. Athabasca waters in Jasper Park range on Jone 1, for the benefit of tourists.

Malaise Lake, in Jasper Park, will be the greatest fishing place this summer, with catches of big brook trout to be made, and already real fishermen's stories of the big boys in the lake are beginning to make the rounds.

But if the fisherman wants to get far from the maddening crowd, then he can go west anywhere from Wildwood and begin to hit grayling and trout country.

MANY TROUT CREEKS

All along the Jasper highway in Cold Creek, Carrot Creek, Trout Creek and other tributaries, of the

McLeod river, are catching out rainbow, or cut-throat, trout, or bull-trout or grayling—sometimes all four varieties in one creek.

Edson, divisional point on the C.N.R., 128 miles west of here, is the centre of a fine fishing country. The angler can either hit southern salmon or cut-throat trout, along the headwaters of the McLeod and Pembina rivers, and get full creeks, or hit up into the Sunshine creek country, where rainbows are the staple catch.

the lake has been proved beyond all peradventure of a doubt, and they will snap leaders with the greatest dash and abandon.

Further west of Obed again, near Hinton and Entrance, practically all the creeks running into the Athabasca contain rainbow trout, albeit somewhat small, owing to the extensive fishing in this locality, while freighters played havoc in the streams with dynamite during the early construction days.

If the anglers wish to start a new trip down the Athabasca, then he can get the best of it, all streams which are only fished at rare intervals by trappers. He can stop at the Big Berland river and haul out bull-boat — the tackle is strong enough — a big as baby alligator.

HERRING RECIPE

And if he wants to enjoy the fish after he has caught them, here's a recipe handed down from an Indian chef.

First follow the old English recipe for jawed hain (that catch you trout) and without any loss of time, get a great big frying pan filled with molting butter on a low fire and

When the pan begins to smoke (usually less than half-a-dozen rain-bows or so), bull-trout steaks and when they begin to curl, turn 'em. In a jiffy, they should be ready and then can be eaten.

And fresh from the water, into the pan is the only way to enjoy a meal of fighting trout say the experts!

—BILL LEWIS—

The upward rush of the Royals in the recent Baseball League has been the chief concern of followers of the circuit lately. They were rated as strong contenders before the start of the season, but after losing their first two starts, the focus began to waver if they were going to displace their supporters.

They turned right around from that, but this time, however, and last night's victory over Imperials was their third in succession.

These three wins has put the Royals right in the thick of what promises to be a great stretch race for league honors. A fair-weather fan would be disappointed if the Royals were to win the championship at this time, and it is likely to be that way for some time to come.

And the two teams that do earn playoff berths will certainly lose a lot of sleep when they eventually do get to there.

Royals' jump from last place right plumb into the center of the race was made possible by the "clicking" of their pitchers and the continual "right" shown by every member of the club. Elmer Glavin, "Chief" Buffle, and Herman Loblick have all pitched fine wins, and the rest of the performers have dug in and fought for base hits, as well as hustling always in the field.

This is the kind of baseball that wins the ball games. Or deserves to, at any rate.

Calles and Radial, who were unable to settle their minor argument on the field of play last Saturday night, were again in the center of their Dominion Challenge Cup engagement tonight, with the winner earning the right to meet Canadian Legion in the local final.

It was quite an unusual sight for local fans, Saturday, when the teams left the field without finishing out the regulation 30 minutes of play, and certainly one that they hadn't looked forward to.

Golfers who do not play at Edmonton's municipal course competition to find that the city's executive department, under which the city-owned golfing links are operated, is showing signs of a change in the way of doing things, steps taken to clear the way for a dandelion.

They claim that at this particular time of year, with the dangers of this perilous weed growing in that the city's executive department should put forward every effort to clear the course of these dandelions that not only detract from the pleasure of a game but also cost money to pull out.

Their claim is that with the present course a renovation program is in progress, and that the city's executive department should put forward every effort to clear the course of these dandelions that not only detract from the pleasure of a game but also cost money to pull out.

And I'm rather inclined to agree with them, too.

Herman Loblick Pitches Win Over Imperials in Good Game

By BILL LEWIS
Webb Kingman's Royals climbed into a tie with South Sea Aces for second place in the St. Louis American Baseball League standings, just half a game behind the successful Imperials, when they whipped the leaders by a 7-6 score in a thrilling, fast-paced battle at 21st Street Park last night.

"I can lick the whole White Sox team, one at a time," said Umpire George Moriarty, and he started out as though he meant to do just that, following a frenzied Memorial Day double-header in Cleveland. But after George had knocked out Pitcher Milt Gaston, with the right hand you are handed in the picture, the Sox began coming on by two's and three's.

Board Hears Freight Association Application

WOULD STOP SHIPMENT OF BULK APPLES

Okanagan Fruit Interests Ask Reduction in Box Apple Rate

VERNON, B.C., June 15.—Hon. C. Patterson, chairman of the board of railway commissioners, and Commissioner T. C. Norris opened today's morning session of the application of the Canadian Freight Association, on behalf of the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Railways, for elimination of shipment of fresh apples in bulk for consignment to the prairie provinces, and for confinement of such shipments to windfalls, consigned to cannery factories, exporting plants and cider mills.

The application, according to Lester J. Laidner, K.C. British Columbia freight rates counsel, affects one-third of the apple production of the province.

The fruit industry of the Okanagan Valley and Allied Securities industries, such as packing houses and box factories are united in holding the present rate for bulk apples, and at the same time they are making an application to the board for a reduction in the box apple rate.

Opposing the railway's application are the British Columbia Fruit Growers' Association, British Columbia Shippers' Council, Associated Growers of British Columbia, Sales and Marketing Association, and the Independent Growers' Association. With them is allied the Attorney-General of British Columbia.

AP PATHS OF GLOOM

By DEXTER TEEB

The flight that Clarence Chamberlain and Charles Levine made from New York to a point near Berlin, Germany, in 1927, was the only incident on which they ever agreed.

They wanted to fly the Atlantic and they had the plane, but their paths have led them in opposite directions ever since.

The quiet, unobtrusive Chamberlain has remained close to aviation. Levine has been involved in so many escapades that he has been dubbed "the serial playboy" and "pals once."

That early summer morning, though, when Pilot Chamberlain turned on the gas and the big plane roared into the runway at Roosevelt Field, he and Levine were pals.

They were pals because Chamberlain turned on the gas and the big plane roared into the runway at Roosevelt Field, he and Levine were pals. They were pals because Chamberlain turned on the gas and the big plane roared into the runway at Roosevelt Field, he and Levine were pals.

CAPITOL

Many of the scenes in Paramount's comedy of London's fashionable social life "Nervous for Ladies," which opened a Thursday today with Leslie Howard in the featured role, are laid in the shopping district of the British capital.

As traffic conditions made it impossible to get street shots with the action, designed, an outdoor street was built at the studio in imitation of London's famous shopping centers and a constant stream of traffic was simulated to produce the desired effect. London's famous street scene, an outdoor street was built at the studio in imitation of London's famous shopping centers and a constant stream of traffic was simulated to produce the desired effect.

By means cleverly the screening of these scenes with actual shots taken of scurrying figures of West End shoppers, a perfect representation of the street with all the dramatic action of the story was obtained.
